WARREN

Miss Nora Larson spent three days at the Rose Festival in Portland. Mrs. Knight of Portland spent Sunday with her father, John Nystrom. Miss Ruth and Anna Peterson of Portland spent Sunday with their father, Peter Peterson. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parker and family of Multnomah, spent Sunday with the family of A. L. Larson. Mrs. Nelson and daughter of Portland spent Sunday with the family of A. L. Larson. Miss Myrtle Larson and Miss Anna Chase spent Sunday with Myrtle's sisters and brothers and father, A. L. Larson.

According to reports of the fruit inspector the prospect for a banner apple crop is excellent and the small amount of disease as compared to the past two years, is very apparent. There is a great movement under way among the local farmers to establish at this point a Farmers' Co-operative bank under the authority recently given by Congress. A capitalization of $25,000 is talked of, but as yet no definite action has been taken. John Farr and H. J. Southard are spending a few weeks at the Hot Springs. Their friends are anxious to know how they are progressing and some wonder is expressed that since the state is "bone dry" where they got anything to cause their retirement to the springs.

The first reunion of the entire confirmation classes of the Swedish Lutheran church, was held on Sunday evening. Over fifty have been confirmed in the church and of those about thirty-five were present. Rev. Nystrom conducted the services which were exceptionally well attended. A pleasing program consisting of solos, duets and music was given. Of the fifty-seven confirmed three are dead and a number have moved away.

RAINIER

(By the Mist's Special Rainier Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Halberg went to Portland the last of the week. Mrs. Frank Roth of Seaside, was attending to business in Rainier on Saturday.

P. L. Schultz fro Camp, is moving in the West cottage, vacated by J. A. Johnson.

selected is along the creek back of Clay DeGraff's property. Bring your lunch and have a good time.

The Congregational church was the scene of a beautiful wedding Wednesday afternoon when Miss Eva Garrison became the bride of Edward Wist. The church was a bower of beautiful ferns and pink roses. The center aisle was most effective with baskets of rose buds arranged on pedestals. The ushers were Beth McKay, Inez McKay, Lois Lapham, Fern White and were dressed in white. Miss Vera Price sang "O. Perfect Love," and was accompanied by Mrs. Vernon Cooke. Mrs. Arch Duncan of Tacoma, played Lohengren's wedding march. Rev. C. H. Johnston of Portland officiated, using the ring ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Gladys Garrison, gown in pink Georgette crepe and carried pink sweet peas. The bride was a living picture of beauty in a gown of white crepe, over silk. She wore a veil and carried a bridal bouquet. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Garrison, and has always been very active in social affairs. Mr. Wist was attended by his brother, Fred Wist, as best man. Mr. Wist has recently been made cashier of the First National bank. A reception for relatives and friends followed the ceremony. After a trip Mr. and Mrs. Wist will reside in Scappoose.

DEER ISLAND

Miss Brown entertained a few friends at Well-Come Inn last Thursday evening in honor of Marguerite Kearns and Edward Keelan, whose wedding will be an event of this month and of the first anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Robberding's marriage. Mr. Robberding, who was serving as one of the 63rd Infantry, Detachment Provost Guards, in Baltimore, has lately been discharged from the army. Games and cards were enjoyed and supper was served to: Marguerite Kearns, Edward Keelan, Joe Keelan, Ray Galtens, Mr. and Mrs. R. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. F. McDonald and daughter, Bernice and Mr. and Mrs. Robberding.
